

Wimbledon 2025

A summer highlight for 2025 ~ our Wimbledon Breaks

Our classic two and three-day Wimbledon Breaks mean that you not only get to enjoy a packed day of tennis fun and tradition, but we'll also look after you with return transfers between your hotel and the grounds, the services of a tour manager, and best of all, reserved seats on No.1 Court.

Plus, we also have two or three-day Wimbledon Tennis & London Breaks, a premium package that offers you a collection of centrally located hotels in London as well as No.1 Court tickets. To allow you more flexibility and freedom, you'll be able to make your own way to and from your hotel and the Wimbledon grounds, ensuring that your wish-list experience will be on your time.

Savour the unique atmosphere of the hallowed grounds and outside courts, enjoy the taste of strawberries and cream, and even a glass of champagne or Pimms (payable locally), and soak up the energy of the crowds gathered on the slopes of Henman Hill.

You will need to download the ticket app to gain entrance, details will be given approx 2 weeks prior.

What do I wear to Wimbledon?

Despite the strict rules placed on the athletes for their Wimbledon attire, spectators are given a little more room. There are no hard and fast rules about what spectators should wear, but for those attending The Championships, it's a bit of an unspoken rule to dress "smart". Smart can really include anything from lounge suits to stylish pantsuits to summery frocks. Usually, jeans, shorts, and trainers are not worn on the big day and outfits featuring loud or offensive statements are a complete no-go. Just remember that because the weather can change at short notice, it's important to bring a light jacket and an umbrella, even though it will be summertime.

What items do I need to bring to Wimbledon?

Aside from food and drink, there are a few other things you should bring or might like to bring. Ensure you bring along your mobile tickets, and if you're collecting them at the event, bring along some photo ID.

To stay hydrated throughout the day, bring a water bottle – there are more than 100 spots where you can refill it. Because it is British weather we're working with, bring along a hat and sunscreen, and an umbrella just in case. Ensure that the bag you bring should be no larger than 40cm x 30cm x 30cm.

How do I travel to Wimbledon?

It's definitely a good idea to plan your trip in advance. As the event can see up to 42,000 spectators at one time, the local transportation can become quite crowded. So, plan your journey in advance. To simplify things, the postcode you need is SW19 5AG. Public transport is one of the best ways to reach the grounds, as parking, though available, is very, very limited.

If you're taking the tube, Southfields (on the District line) will be the station closest to the grounds. This is just a 15-minute walk. If you're taking the bus, the 493 is your best bet, as it directly links Wimbledon Station and Southfields Station. If public transport isn't for you, you can also be dropped off or collected by Taxi, Uber, or Bolt at a location outside the grounds.

Remember we are rail agents so we can offer rail tickets from your hometown with or without railcards - or domestic flights in the UK - please ask

What are the rules for watching tennis at Wimbledon?

There are some simple rules that spectators should observe, including: If you need to leave or re-enter court, you can do so only at the change of ends or between matches, and never during a tie-break. During a rally, refrain from making noise, Leave your glass drinking vessels and uncorked bottles off the court, Switch off your phone or switch it to silent mode
